DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 12-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 12 and 20, "selecting a set of error correction code" and "said selected set of error correction code" are apparently elliptical or not idiomatic English and apparently should be "selecting an error correction code from a set of error correction codes" and "said selected error correction code", or "selecting a set of error correction code instructions" and "said selected set of error correction code instructions" or the like.

In claims 13 and 15, "select said set of error correction code" is apparently elliptical or not idiomatic English and apparently should be "select an error correction code from said set of error correction codes" or the like.

In claim 16, "select a set of error correction code" is apparently elliptical or not idiomatic English and apparently should be "select an error correction code from a set of error correction codes" or the like.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

3. Claims 16-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claim 16 does not positively recite a tangible medium, in view of the specification.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-11 are allowed.

5. Claims 20-22 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
